

Millionaires Ask Protection From Bandit Holdups

Members of Exclusive Colony Object to Preference Robbers Show.

MINEOLA, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Millionaires residing in Nassau county, Long Island, one of the richest and most exclusive colonies in the country, appealed to the authorities today for special protection from bandits.

More than 50 robberies have occurred in the county in the last 10 days, including daylight holdups in the villages and along the country roads.

The situation has become so desperate that state troopers already are patrolling the highways.

While pursuing their work in all parts of the county and evincing great versatility, the bandits have shown a particular liking to holding up millionaires in their automobiles. Their favorite method is stretching a wire across the road and thus forcing the machine to halt.

Robert Low Bacon of Westbury, one of the late Ambassadors Robert Bacon, acted as spokesman in presenting an appeal to the county supervisors for better protection. One of the latest attempts by the bandits was on C. C. Rumsey, sculptor and member of the team which won the international polo championship. He escaped by speeding up his car and breaking a wire across the road.

TO OFFER BRIEFS IN TRIBUNE SUIT

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—Opposing attorneys in the $10,000,000 suit of the city of Chicago against the Chicago Tribune were given four days in which to submit written briefs to Judge Harry Fisher, of the circuit court, on the demurrer to the suit filed by the newspaper.

The city sued the newspaper charging that stories printed saying "Chicago is broke" harmed the city's credit and made it impossible to dispose of bonds.

If the judge overrules the demurrer filed by the Tribune the case will come to trial; if not, the case will be thrown out of court.

Weymouth Kirkland, attorney for the newspaper, in his closing argument, said if the demurrer were granted it would be a step toward muzzling the press.

G. A. R. REUNION STIRS MEMORIALS

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 27.—While the martial lilt of life and beat of drum from little groups of "volunteer" musicians quickened the pulse of pedestrians on the downtown streets, the 25th national encampment of the G. A. R. is under way today.

Memory of many a veteran harked back to marches of more than half a century ago as these civil war life and drum corps staged improvised parades.

Business sessions and memorial meetings of the G. A. R. and affiliated bodies were on the program today, with the campfire of the National Association of Union ex-prisoners of war and a reception to Commander-in-Chief William A. Keckham, scheduled to take place at the state house tonight.

GOES TO PRISON WITH HUSBAND

LAWRENCEVILLE, Ill., Sept. 27.—Declaring that if her husband belonged in prison, her place was in prison with him, Mrs. Roy E. Laughlin has asked the sheriff to imprison her in the county jail here where her husband is being held in connection with the failure of the Bridgeport Bank & Trust Co. of Bridgeport, Ill. The sheriff has granted her request.

Laughlin, who was cashier of the bank, is being held following a discovery of a shortage of more than $125,000 in his accounts.

HEAD OF TARIFF BODY RESIGNS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Resignation of Thomas W. Page as chairman of the federal tariff commission has been accepted by Pres't Harding. It was learned at the white house today. Page will remain a member of the commission, however.

He is a democrat and was appointed chairman of the commission by Pres't Wilson. It was understood that his resignation as chairman was offered to make way for appointment of a republican as head of the commission.

HUNGARIANS AND SLOVAKS CLASH

BERLIN, Sept. 27.—Fighting has broken out between Hungarians and Czechoslovakia irregulars on the Hungarian-Czechoslovakian frontier, according to a Vienna dispatch to the Neue Berliner Zeitung today. The dispatch said that several skirmishes had taken place.

This is the first time that Czechoslovakia have clashed with Hungarians since the peace treaty was signed.

CHILEAN-BOLIVIAN DISPUTE SHELVED

GENEVA, Sept. 27.—The Chilean-Bolivian dispute, which threatened to cause further defections from the ranks of the League of Nations, was put upon the shelf today. It will not come up again until next year at the earliest.

The Bolivian delegates to the league assembly meeting received instructions from their government not to press their demand for revision of the Tacna-Arica treaty of 1904 at the conference.

Honeymoon Tragedy Baffles Police

MR. AND MRS. JOHN D. KETTELLE

COLLEGE GIRL, BRIDE OF FOUR DAYS DEAD

UNION, Conn., Sept. 27.—The tragic ending of a woodland honeymoon spent in a cabin is baffling the police of two states.

A bride of four days is dead. The state police say that she committed suicide. Others believe her to be a victim of foul play. All agree, however, that, if she is a suicide, it is the most amazing case of self-destruction ever recorded in eastern police annals.

The young woman, Mrs. Norah Johnson Kettelle, was the bride of a Harvard man and daughter of a socially prominent Boston and New York family. The bridegroom is John D. Kettelle of Cambridge. Their union, in the eyes of their friends, was an "ideal match."

College Sweethearts. The man and the girl were college sweethearts and had been engaged for five years. They were married at the home of the bride's aunt in New York and immediately sought the woodland cabin of a friend on Lake Mashapaug to spend what was to be the happiest period of their lives.

Four days passed—four days of extreme happiness the husband said. Then Kettelle went to the village to purchase supplies. When he re-expressed the opinion that a recurrence of that mental state caused her to take her life.

Powder and Rouge Seen As Asset to Business Women

CLEVELAND, Sept. 27.—Powder and rouge tempered with moderation and good judgment are a decided asset to the business girl. So says Mrs. C. E. Conger, home secretary of the Y. W. C. A. here, who mothers the more than one hundred business girls living at the "Y."

"A shiny nose is not the symbol of efficiency any more than is the complexion which resembles French pastry. It's the girl who is quietly attractive, who blends inconspicuously into her surroundings, that is most appreciated by business men," declares Mrs. Conger.

Mrs. Conger is not "with" the mob who are howling for dress reform. Again stressing moderation, she defends the short skirts of the mode, saying:

"The present fashions are quite the ideal attire for business girls. They permit more freedom and are good looking. I for one distinctly hope long skirts will not be favored."

While she does not condemn it, Mrs. Conger thinks most employers prefer the old-fashioned coiffures to bobbed hair. Therefore to the maid who thinks of having her tresses shorn she says "Beware!"

U. S. COURT SCORES. MARTINSBURG, W. Va., Sept. 27.—Judge W. E. Baker of the federal court for the district of northern West Virginia, holds that the use of state search and seizure warrants by federal prohibition agents, in whatever capacity is "subterfuge"; the federal government does not need to use "state or county officers as pawns in enforcing federal statutes."

Arraignment dims the lustre of the most brilliant intellect and dulls the edge of the sharpest wit.

Men are saved from many a littleness and traditional slavery by looking away from themselves.

POLICEMAN SLAIN, NEGRO WOUNDED IN GARY AFFRAY

GARY, Ind., Sept. 27.—Julius Gunther, a policeman was killed and a negro was wounded in a shooting affair here last night. Officials are taking precautions against race trouble as a result of the shooting.

Gunther had entered the black belt to investigate a shooting. He entered a pool room where the negro was found on the floor wounded.

The policeman walked on through the room and pulled aside a curtain when a shot rang out and he staggered to the street where he fell dead, shot through the heart.

As a result of the affair, Mayor W. E. Hodges ordered out all the reserves and recruited 500 civilians. The police force with its reinforcements combed the negro section but was unable to locate the slayer.

For want of a word lives often drift apart.

POLITICS REVIVES WAR IN MEXICO

TOLUCA, Mexico, Sept. 27.—The state of Mexico was enmeshed in political warfare today.

Gen. Andres B. Castro, defeated candidate for governor, marched on the city this morning with a quickly recruited army and established what practically amounted to a state of siege.

Gen. Abundio Gomez, newly elected governor, has called all state troops and reserves to arms. He has wired Pres't Obregon for aid.

TROOPS AND MOB CLASH, 5 KILLED

MILAN, Italy, Sept. 27.—Troops fired upon an angry crowd of demonstrators (conservatives) at Modena, killing five and wounding 23 others, dispatches from that city stated today.

Among the wounded was a deputy of the Italian parliament named Vicini.

The strike called by the socialists on account of the attacks by the Fascists is general throughout all Apulia. Deputy Devagno, the Italian parliamentarian who was wounded by a bomb in disorders near Bari, died during the night. The situation continues serious.
